HESS TRAVEL RECEIVES NATIONAL HONOR

February 17, 2010, Salt Lake City, Utah. Utah-based Hess Corporate Travel has been named to the prestigious Corporate Advisory Council (CAC) of the American Society of Travel Agents (ASTA) - Washington DC. The CAC is comprised of senior management of 34 of the largest travel management companies in the United States and is charged with providing strategic direction for ASTA in a dramatically changing business environment.

Alan H. Hess, President, and Michael S. Davidson, Vice President, represented Hess Corporate Travel at the recent Corporate Advisory Council meeting in San Antonio, Texas.

Hess Travel commenced business operations in 1985, originally as American International Travel. Hess Travel acquired Crossroads Travel in 1997 and acquired the business travel operations of Morris Murdock Travel in 2009. Business Travel News (New York NY) names Hess Corporate Travel as one of the 50 largest business travel agencies in the United States. For more information contact Alan H. Hess, President or Michael S. Davidson, Vice President & General Manager. www.hesstravel.com.
